Ravi,
We just received Vince's comments. It may be difficult to digest these outside of the context of the Sharepoint draft (it is here: Management Review Folder ), but it looks like he had some thoughts on the animal IUR sections of the overview document.
Barbara and I are planning to address all IO comments we can before reaching out to the team, so if you don't have time to worry about this now, that is fine.

Hello everyone—First, the formaldehyde draft is excellent work. Congratulations to everyone involved.

My role as a reviewer was to find points I think will attract attention from critics, and points where I didn't find the write-up convincing. I've entered comments onto the SharePoint site and am attaching a subset of major comment bubbles extracted into a single file. I'd be happy to discuss anything on the SharePoint site with you.
